Research Team on Innovative and Entrepreneurial Environment for Talents, Annual Report on China's Development of Innovative and Entrepreneurial Environment for Talents (2018): Third Party Assessment of the 25 Districts of Beijing, Shanghai, Guangzhou, Shenzhen and Hangzhou, China Social Sciences Press, 2018.

In 2018, Professor Zhi Zhenfeng, a research fellow at CASS Law Institute, in collaboration with experts and scholars in the relevant fields from CASS Institute of Political Science, National Talent Research Base, and China Institute of Industrial Relations, developed an Index System of Innovative and Entrepreneurial Environment for Talents, and used this system to carry out third-party comprehensive assessment of the innovative and entrepreneurial environment for talents in 25 districts of the five cities of Beijing, Shanghai, Guangzhou, Shenzhen and Hangzhou. This book, published by China Social Sciences Press as a part of the “National Think Tank” book series, is a report on the results of the assessment. It provides readers an important reference for understanding the overall situation of innovative and entrepreneurial environment for talents in China.
